

The Loudon Ledger

JULY 2016

Due to unforeseen circumstances, the July edition of The Loudon Ledger will not be published; we will resume in August. Our publication coordinator is recovering from a serious accident and we wish her a speedy recovery. Residents are encouraged to go to loudonnh.org to look for more information on upcoming events, and we ask that you let your neighbors know that there will not be a Ledger delivered this month. We appreciate your understanding!

Town Offices will be closed on July 4 in observance of Independence Day. Offices will resume normal business hours on Tuesday, July 5. Town Clerk's office will be closed on Monday, July 11. The office will open Tuesday, July 12, from noon to 8:45 pm.

Loudon Food Pantry is busy this summer!

Loudon Old Home Day Association presents GAME ON! 2016

Preparations are underway for this year's Old Home Day on August 13th, celebrating sports, teamwork, and community! Lots of great activities are planned: get your organization together and march in the parade, and bring your favorite original recipes for judging at the baking and chili contests! Play games, listen to great music, and watch the amazing fireworks. For more information about the schedule, contests – including nomination forms for Citizen of the Year – and to make a donation, visit the LOHD Association's website at loudonoldhomeday.com, or their Facebook page at Loudon Old Home Day.

Maxfield Public Library has a busy July schedule with something for everyone! Visit them at maxfieldlibrary.com for their calendar of events which include summer reading programs, book groups, story time, movies, yoga, teen and adult craft nights, and sit 'n stitch. Don't forget that day passes are available for a variety of NH attractions and museums, and many new books and movies have arrived.

Selectmen and Zoning Board Minutes are posted at loudonnh.org in draft form.

- Selectmen meet each Tuesday at 6pm at the Community Building
- Planning Board meets the third Thursday of the month at 7pm at the Community Building
- Zoning Board meets the fourth Thursday of the month at 7pm at the Community Building
