

Loudon Recreation Meeting Minutes for November 17, 2010

In attendance: Alicia Grimaldi, Jen Pfeifer, Amanda Masse, and Alice Tucson

Review of Revolving Fund Budget and the submission for the 2011 budget. Last year, Alicia Grimaldi discussed with the Selectman creating a warrant article for the tennis courts. Alicia Grimaldi contacted VT Tennis Courts and they will be out this month to provide an estimate.

Discussed the first annual Loudon Farm Feast held on November 7th at the Loudon Elementary School. Tickets were pre-sold, 148. The event was a huge success. Reviewed feedback forms. Interest expressed in holding a summer event during Community Summer Fun Nights. Appreciation acknowledged for all the farmers who participated and the volunteers who made it possible.

New England School of Archery is changing hands and will now be contracted through Archery in Motion. The next class will be held 12/10, 12/17, 1/7, and 1/14. Beginner and intermediate classes are available. This class will continued to be held at LES in the cafeteria.

Amanda Masse spoke to the Red Cross and is working on coordinating a “Safe on My Own” class in February and the Babysitting course in March.

Amanda Masse spoke with Theresa Taylor of Salty Dog Pottery who will be holding classes during Feb/April vacations.

Kim Therrien is coordinating a line dancing class.

Jodi Doodi, of LCC sent a request to meet regarding Loudon Recreation Committee holding a golf tournament, however the members concurred this would not be in alignment with our mission.

The Monarchs are partnering with Vertical Dreams. Alicia Grimaldi to contact regarding setting up a few dates for the Loudon community to participate.

Kidz Art program will be revisited. Jenn Pfeifer will contact the instructor to set up programming.

Next month the Loudon Recreation Committee will discuss Winter Carnival. Line up includes but is not limited to snowshoeing, snow man toss, food, fire pit, snowman building contest, horse drawn carriage rides, bird seed craft, and maple syrup snow cones.

If you have ideas or would like to run a program through the Loudon Recreation Committee please contact Alicia Grimaldi at affirmhealth@yahoo.com or call 603-568-5575.

The next Loudon Recreation Committee Meeting will be held on December 15th @ 6:30 pm at the Maxfield Public Library.
